WELCOME TO A SPECIAL PIECE OF HISTORY...

Named the Aucklander, this steam tug was delivered from Scotland in 1958 where she spent years towing and ship handling around the Auckland port.

In 1986, a Wellington businessman by the name of Clem Griffiths purchased her to establish Wellington's first and only floating restaurant. The original "Tugboat on the Bay" restaurant opened to the public at Oriental Bay in 1992, and to this day she continues to float proudly and serve delicious fare.
